Synced In Process

- Do you have multiple offices in different regions?
- Do you have to manage different tax and reporting regulations?
- Do different subsidiaries or divisions have different data needs?
- Do head offices have one version of the data and information, and local businesses a different version?

Sirius Octopus 365: Factsheet

Sirius Octopus 365 enables companies to access data from a common, shared platform. Members of each corporate group or department within a company should be able to share and retrieve data from each other's databases. It needs configuration with Dynamics 365 Business Central once to start sharing data across a corporate group.
